Quietly Tucked Away Yet Amongst it All

A most pleasant surprise awaits neatly nestled away behind the gracious historic Dalkeith House. This beautifully presented, wonderfully eclectic single level easily managed home is ideally located close to the markets and Fremantle's cafe lifestyle.

Offering a unique blend of historic limestone feature walls, rich Terracotta floors and banks of timber windows, the vast open plan living spaces with raked ceilings proffers a diverse range of living styles. The living spaces are bright and breezy, nicely nuanced by thoughtful design that enable more intimate areas to be easily crafted. A magnificent, large music room with its bank of timber casement windows is a beautiful, calming space and offers a myriad of alternate uses.
