

SOLD by TEAM MAJEKS

2 Samson Street, Fremantle offers all that discerning buyers are looking for: history, location, character and opportunity. This address is a quintessential Fremantle property. Owned by the same family for over 60 years - the walls of this address whisper generations of tales.

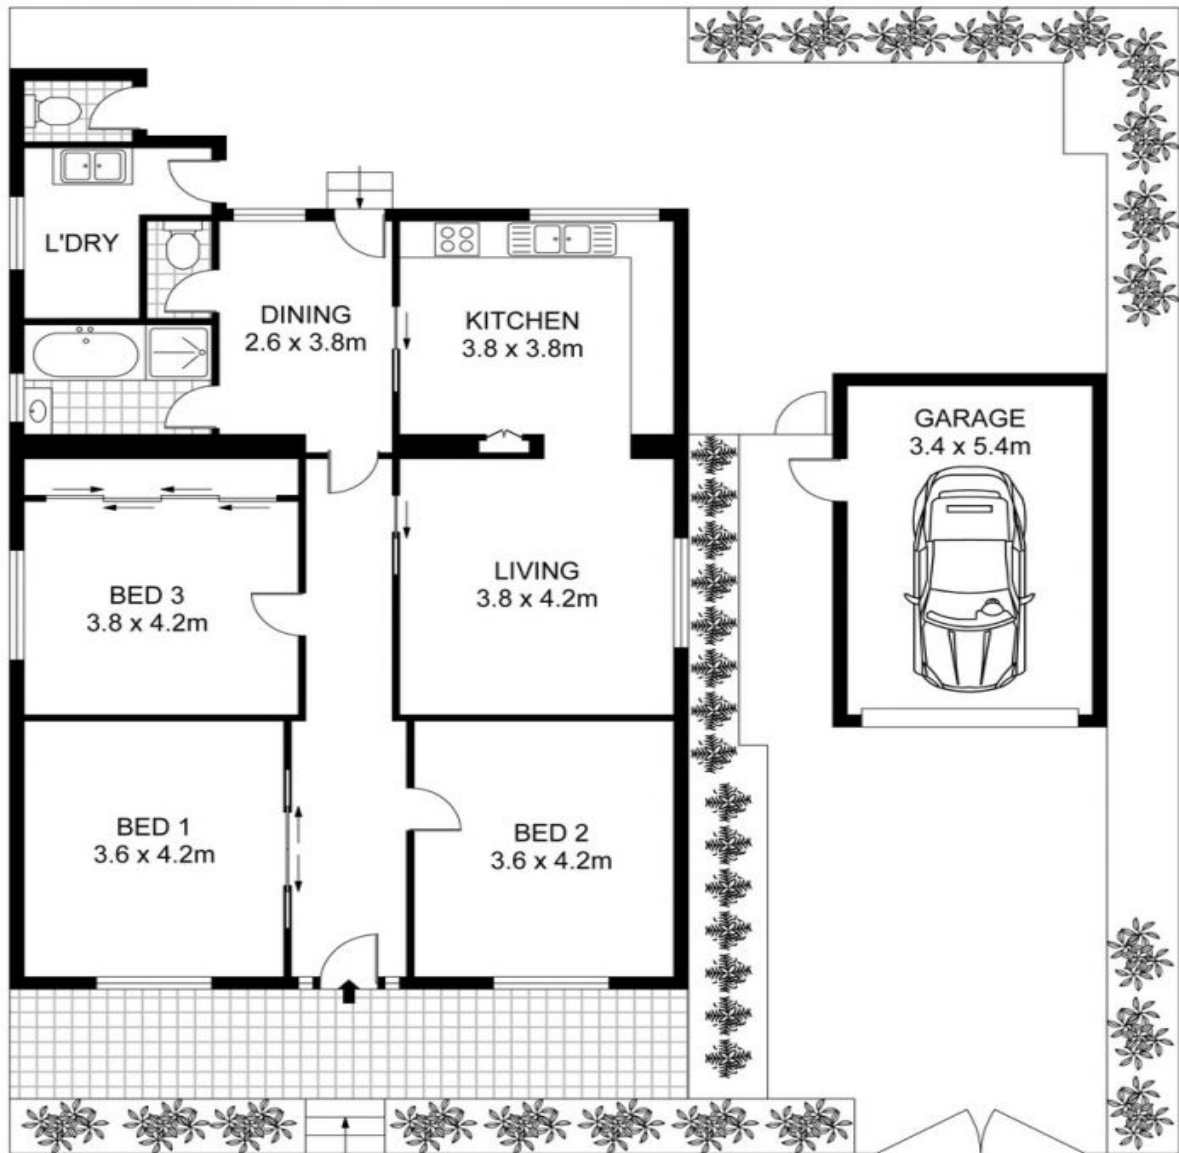

The dwelling is solid and unpretentious, in need of renovation but ripe with possibilities. On a tidy landholding of 339sqm the dwelling includes four large rooms that enjoy a generosity of space together with all of the features that we love and expect in a "Freo" home: wide hall, high ceilings, jarrah floorboards. The kitchen and dining room enjoy the same original features as the rest of the home, including terrazzo flooring.

The options and potential here are endless, a wonderful opportunity to this sought-after location, renovate and extend the existing home to create a wonderful address.
